

FOUNDATION COURSE 2023

SATURDAY, APRIL 15
STOCKHOLM, SWEDEN

T I M E T A B L E

12:00-12:05 Introduction

12:05-13:20 Essentials of oncology

- The basics of cancer biology: How cancer develops and how it metastasizes?
 - The essentials of chemotherapy and immunotherapy
 - The essentials of radiation therapy
 - The essentials of surgery
 - The essentials of interventional oncology
 - Multidisciplinary team meetings – how to maximise their value
 - Q&A/Discussion
-

13:20-14:25 Lung cancer and lung metastases

- Primary lung cancer types and overview of lung metastases
 - Surgery: basic techniques and indications
 - External radiotherapy and SBRT
 - Chemotherapy and immunotherapy
 - An outline of IO therapies and their roles in lung tumours
 - Q&A/Discussion
-

14:25-15:00 Break

15:00-16:05 Primary liver cancer and liver metastases

- Pathology and approach to sampling
 - Surgery: basic techniques and indication
 - External radiotherapy and SBRT in the liver
 - Chemotherapy and immunotherapy
 - An outline of IO treatments and their roles in liver malignancy
 - Q&A/Discussion
-

16:05-17:10 Renal cell carcinoma

- Pathological subtypes of renal masses and distinguishing features
 - Surgical options: partial nephrectomy vs. complete nephrectomy
 - Chemotherapy and immunotherapy
 - Radiation for renal cell carcinoma
 - An outline of IO treatments including biopsy and their roles in renal cell carcinoma
 - Q&A/Discussion
-

17:10-17:40 Clinical practice in IO

- How to run an outpatient clinic
- Consultations and follow-up
- Q&A/Discussion